The Presenters

Oliver Dreon, PhD

Professor and Director, Center for Innovation in Teaching & Learning,
Millersville University of Pennsylvania

Oliver Dreon teaches a wide variety of education and instructional technology courses both in face-to-face and online formats. Dreon has spent over twenty-five years teaching in various educational environments and provides regular professional development and consultation on teaching and learning in higher education. His work examines how technology can be used to support student development through physical, online, and hybrid learning spaces.

The Presenters

Greg Szczyrbak

Learning Technologies Librarian and Director, Digital Learning Studio,
Millersville University of Pennsylvania

Greg Szczyrbak enjoys working collaboratively to explore the impact of technology on learning. Szczyrbak has been an advocate for Open Education supporting local and regional efforts to increase awareness and use of Open Educational Resources in Higher Education.

Learning Goals

- Describe research that demonstrates OER impact on student success and retention
- Find high quality open educational resources
- Use OER effectively to impact student learning
- Advocate for the use of OER as an alternative to high cost text

What is your experience with Open Educational Resources?

- A) I have authored OER in my classes
- B) I have used OER in my classes
- C) I've heard of OER
- D) I've never heard of OER

WHY SHOULD WE USE OPEN EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES?

Rise in Textbook Costs

What is Open?

"Open Educational Resources are teaching and learning materials that you may freely use and reuse, without charge. "

A blue-tinted photograph of a university campus. In the foreground, a stone archway is partially visible with the word "UNIVERSITY" carved into it. In the background, there is a large, multi-story brick building with several windows and a set of stairs leading to an entrance. The scene is set on a paved area, possibly a walkway or plaza.

How big of an issue is textbook costs on your campus? What impact do you feel that textbook costs have on student learning?

Impact of Textbook Costs

In your academic career, has the cost of required textbooks caused you to:

	2012	2016
Not purchase the required textbook	63.6%	66.5%
Take fewer courses	49.2%	47.6%
Not register for a specific course	45.1%	45.5%
Earn a poor grade	33.9%	37.6%
Drop a course	26.7%	26.1%
Fail a course	17.0%	19.8%

Review of OER Research

“Results across multiple studies indicate that students generally achieve the same learning outcomes when OER are utilized and simultaneously save significant amounts of money. Studies across a variety of settings indicate that both students and faculty are generally positive regarding OER.”

OER Impact on Retention

“the differences in withdrawal rates were quite clear; 21% of students in the commercial textbook condition withdrew from the course while only 6% of students in the OER condition withdrew from the course.”

Poll: How do you perceive the quality of Open Educational Resources?

A) If it's free, it can't be any good.

B) It's got to be as good as the textbooks we already use.

C) Maybe it's better than the textbooks we already use.

D) I don't know...

Our Campus's Solution

- In Spring 2019, 16 faculty were provided $1000 professional development funds for replacing traditional textbooks with OER
- OTI faculty participated in semester-long Campus Learning Community
- OTI implemented in Summer 2019, Fall 2019 and Winter 2020
- Data from assessments & surveys are currently being analyzed
- OTI 2.0 will begin in February 2020

How to be an Advocate!

Don't work in isolation.

Understand what motivates faculty.

Educate community on the instructional and technological implications and impacts.

Recognize that different messages work with different stakeholders.
